Dear Ms. Hill:

This refers to our meeting on Friday, June 11, 1993, pursuant to the Memorandum of Understanding between the FCC and the EEOC, regarding the EEO provisions of the Cable Television Consumer Protection and Competition Act of 1992. As we explained at the beginning of the meeting, any comments made by EEOC representatives, which relate to the merits of the ongoing rule making proceeding to the implement the EEO provisions, must be included within the public file so that they may be considered by the full Commission. A summary of your comments was prepared and placed into the public record of MM Docket 92-261, on June 14, 1993.

In addition, as discussed during the meeting, I am enclosing a copy of the current Supplemental Investigation Sheet, which is used by the Commission to conduct the five year EEO program investigation for cable operators.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter, you may contact me at (202) 632-7069 or Roderick K. Porter at (202) 632-6460.

Sincerely,

Lisa M. Higginbotham
